HAWAIIAN SINGING BOY HOME FROM A SUCCESSFUL TOUR

July Kealoha, a Hawaiian singing boy who went to the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo six years ago and since that time has been playing in vaudeville, is home again for a vacation. He is accompanied by his wife, a young American girl whom he married five or six years ago. They are visiting with July's mother in Manoa valley, and on their return to New York the latter will accompany them to spend the winter.

July has a baritone voice, and those who have heard him sing since his return say it has greatly improved. He has a small company of Hawaiian singing boys forming a quartet and their sketch is on the programs of some of the best theaters at the mainland. His wife, who is an attractive young woman and quite a talented actress and dancer, is a member of the troupe. Her dancing is so graceful that she attracted the attention of Mary Garden and received a flattering offer to join her company to present a special dance. Mrs. Kealoha declined the offer.

Special scenery is used in the sketch showing a Hawaiian mountain scene with a grass house in the foreground. The boys sing, and Mrs. Kealoha, garbed as a Greek of ancient times, enters and gives a modified hula which is said to be very pretty. She also sings Hawaiian songs and speaks the language to some extent.

John Ellis, the Hawaiian tenor, is said to have expressed a desire to join Kealoha's little company, but his voice is so rich and powerful that the present well blended chorus would be quite overshadowed by the tenor.

THE LURE OF LOVE AS A MEANS OF WINNING VOTES

SPOKANE, Washington, July 21.—"No vote, no husband," is the slogan of two hundred and fifty girls of marriageable age who have just organized the College Equal Suffrage Club of Spokane, under the presidency of Mrs. Z. W. Comerford. Each has taken a solemn vow to convert her suitor to woman's rights before entering upon an engagement.

The plan to enlist Cupid into the ranks as an ally was originated by a half dozen timid members, who, after several conferences, persuaded Mrs. Comerford to launch the movement and recruit the membership to five hundred before the beginning of September.

This does not mean that the methods introduced by Mr. Adam when he first met Miss Eve are to be barred here, but that the valiant knight must break customs instead of lances and gain for his lady love the privilege to cast her ballot if he is to have the wealth of satisfaction in his game of wooing.

"While our members are not going to be quite as radical as the Chicago girls," said Mrs. Comerford, "there will be absolutely no encouragement to those who do not believe in the suffragists' cause. We expect to start a school of conversion. The girls will not be pledged to refuse a suitor who is not a suffragist, but it is expected that every member will promise to use her best endeavors to win the man for us."

OFTENTIMES you need a pure and reliable medicine for ordinary family ills and you can find such a one in the Bitters. In thousands of homes throughout the Islands you'll find.

bachelors, said he was under the impression that most of the men would take a change of venue and try another court of appeal, while his stenographer, Miss Mildred Vordell, gave this statement:

"If they keep up that game, they'll be a lonesome bunch of girls in a short time. I don't believe that marriage has degenerated into a political bargain just yet. I'll bet there isn't one girl in the club that would cast a real lover aside even if he doesn't subscribe to the suffragists' cause."

H. H. Moore, boys' secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association of Spokane, gave out a typewritten statement, as follows:

"I do not believe that a girl who will reject a man for a suffrage promise like the one exacted by the College Club would make a very good wife for any man. I am not afraid of equal suffrage, and have little or no sympathy for the cause. I do not believe I could be won on even a trick like that. Another thing is that I do not believe a promise of that kind would hold good after marriage, anyway. It would be easily broken."

Charles H. Muehlman, manager of an amusement enterprise, said he hopes that girls will not decide to form a union and declare a strike, adding that if the average girl is anything like he believes her to be she will not hold long to the conversion idea. It might be the men will do the converting.

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

James C. L. Armstrong, Nuuanu Valley, Honolulu, Hawaii, says: "I was a sufferer from kidney trouble for three years and Doan's Backache Kidney Pills completely cured me. I have had no return of the complaint during the past year. I can not recommend this remedy too highly."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists and storekeepers at 50 cents per box (six boxes $2.50) or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

Correct Neckwear

Cravats, as much as any part of a man's dress, reflect his character. Quality of the material is the clinch of the argument that a good article, like Kaiser Baratheas, is worth all it costs because it looks, and wears, better than any other tie material.

We have a new and large assortment of Batwings in all colors and shades cut from the finest material with a touch of originality in shape, unknown to the makers of other neckwear. Loose Chassepot, something that will remind you of the Latin quarter, must appeal to men of artistic taste and inclinations. Four-in-hands of the most beautiful and quiet patterns and shades, those that will be appropriate to men of all ages and professions.
